DRAFT ART STUDY / NO GAME ASSETS REPLACED

Zane: compact tactical sprite comparison

One front-right idle pose / original character identity / generated style candidates

Approved identity

Current painted reference

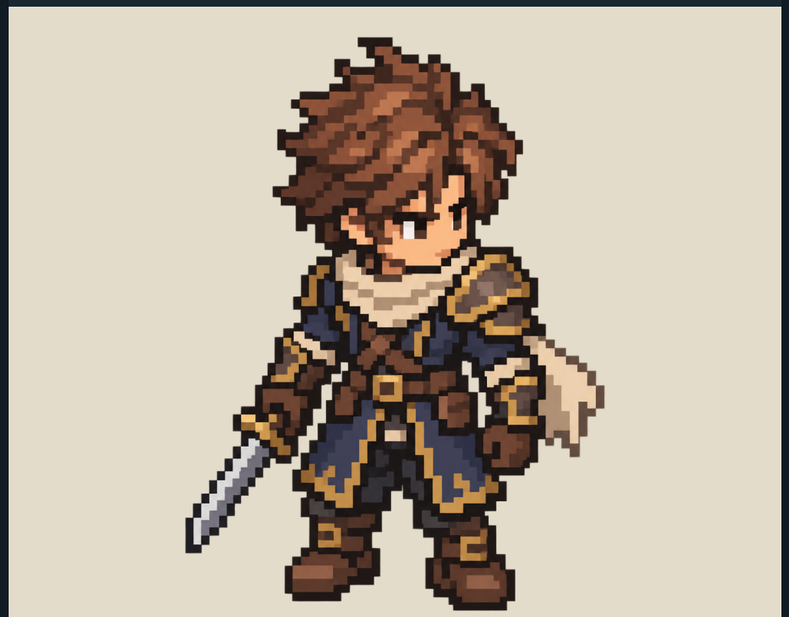

85px visible height: white / dark / terrain-color

Original costume and handedness authority.
Not an alternative new sprite design.

A: Nostalgic compact

Pixel-style candidate

85px visible height: white / dark / terrain-color

Stronger face, scarf and weapon readability.
Pixel-styled source, not a verified 64px grid.

B: HD compact

Cel-shaded 2D candidate

85px visible height: white / dark / terrain-color

Same compact silhouette with clean contours.
Simplified armor and face need art approval.

Review report, not an in-game screenshot. Isolated transparent PNGs; sword in the right hand, large pauldron on the left shoulder.

Not animation-ready: one pose only. No reverse views or walk cycle. Display height normalized; game ground pivots uncalibrated.
